A stunning snow-white head delicately sits atop the honey-orange hefeweizen. A playful, but not overwhelming carbonation slowly ascends the glass, giving the beer a persistent cap throughout drinking. Aromas of honeydew, clove, white pepper and of course, just the right amount of banana entice you. The texture is full bodied but not heavy. While drinking you will be taken by the amazing lacing strewn throughout the glass. The flavor is rich with notes of vanilla, clove and banana, while remaining ever so quaffable, with the slightest earthy hop character settling in on the finish. A depth of aroma and flavor make this hefeweizen a journey of drinkability.
